About Me

I'm Saoirse, a designer with a keen interest in User Experience, Interface & Graphic Design.

I'm a confident, highly motivated and creative student determined to succeed in the tech and design Industry. Continuously learning new techniques, software and keeping up with emerging trends. Actively attending UX, Women Tech Space and Digital design meet-ups in Belfast. I have 16 months of industry experience working as a Graphic & Digital Designer at Ulster University while in my final year of studies.
